Program Overview

You excelled in your frontline role, so you got promoted into a formal leadership position. However, what made you a high performer on the frontlines may not translate to leadership. We will explore tools and strategies that you can use to make an impact leading from the middle.

Program Objectives

1. Define the unique challenges and opportunities of leading from the middle
2. Recognize how mid-level leaders bridge strategy and execution
3. Learn techniques to gain trust and credibility across all levels of the organization
